- THE - END OF THE BEER SHOW

Produced and Directed by Ken Dawson & Jodie Horton

*An evening of song, dance and laughter
in the Bar at The Brewhouse Arts Centre
Friday 17th June & Saturday 18th June 2011 - 7:30pm*

A word from our Chairman

A very warm welcome to our 40th year celebration summer show. Plenty of hard work has gone into the production of The End of the Beer Show and each and every member of the show deserves credit for their constant effort and energy. Our chosen charity for this production is Help for Heroes - a charity close to many.

Please look out for our next production Beauty and the Beast in February 2012 - you can keep up to date by visiting our website www.base-panto.com.

Enjoy tonight's entertainment of song, dance and comedy in true BASE style!

Martin Goodall, Chairman

A message from the Producers

On behalf of Jodie and myself, we would like to thank you for supporting BASE again this evening. We hope you enjoy our little contribution to your Summer.

When our chairman first suggested the idea of a summer show to help celebrate 40 years of BASE, I was transported back to the summers of my childhood and in particular those seaside variety shows that filled every theatre in every resort along the coastlines of Britain. I presented my blueprint for this format to the committee and for my sins landed the role of Producer.

Our thanks also go out to Gemma East and Colin Haywood who assisted in bringing the concept to life. We held an afternoon workshop last November where members showcased their talents and were blown away by the standard and the enthusiasm everyone had shown.

A final thank you, then, to the unsung star of our show, forever in the background, responsible for countless memorable performances on the 'ivories' over the years and reluctant to take any of the credit for her phenomenal talent and effervescent contribution since the beginning of Burton Amateur Stage Entertainers, Mrs Joan Broadhurst. Thank you 'auntie' Joan.

Enjoy our show and come back to see us in Beauty And The Beast, February 2012.

Ken Dawson, Co-Producer

Firstly, I would like to thank all of you dearly for coming to support The End of the Beer Show. Without you, we couldn't have put on this show, so thank you from the bottom of my heart.

I would like to thank ALL of the cast for their support and all their effort throughout the last 12 weeks. They are amazing people to work with, and we couldn't have done it without them. It is lovely to see so many people with so many different talents!

So all that's left for me to say now is sit back, relax and enjoy the show!!

Jodie Horton, Co-Producer

Help for Heroes

As well as our love for performing, we at BASE try to combine our art with raising money for charities. We usually lean towards local groups to ensure donations help the local community.

This time we have chosen a national charity and one that is close to many members of the community.

We chose this worthy cause for two main reasons; firstly as we all know family members, friends, or friends of friends who have done service for their country and we appreciate the sacrifices that these individuals have made for us. Secondly, as this show climaxes in a rousing Cockney medley, it includes some wartime classics that lifted the spirit in the dark days of war and enable us to reflect how the sentiment carries through to today. So please be as generous as you can in buying your raffle tickets and making any voluntary donations this evening.

Thankyou.

You can find out more about the charity on their website: www.helpforheroes.org.uk
